

DEMOCRATS FEEL FINE, THANK YOU

Tickled Over Registration and Enthusiasm.

Returns Show Republicans More Than Ever Black.

W. O. Head Pleased At Young Men's Support.

ANOTHER ACTIVE WEEK.

The Democratic Advisory Committee, of which John W. Green is chairman, at a recent meeting made partial arrangements for a citizens' meeting to be held at Liederkranz Hall, corner of Sixth and Walnut streets, on Friday night, October 15, at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be held at 3:30 o'clock in the red room of The Seelbach to perfect arrangements for this meeting. Besides W. O. Head, Col. Bennett H. Young and Edward P. Humphrey, who will be present on this occasion, an out-of-town speaker within the State will be announced later. From the expressions of representatives of citizens, it is expected this meeting will be well attended by the best citizens of Louisville.

The beginning of the first week after the registration, not only according to the opinion of Democratic leaders, but according to the observations and expressions of others who are unbiased in judgment on the situation, unquestionably finds William O. Head, Democratic nominee for Mayor, and the entire Democratic ticket making gains that are nothing less than phenomenal. The registration, despite the claims of the Republicans all along, has proven a boomerang in their camp and has inspired new zeal among the Democrats, including leaders and the rank and file of the party.

The boost of the Republican machine leaders that they were going to put from 13,000 to 15,000 negroes over the plate in the registration failed to materialize, to their great disappointment. The gain in the negro registration, according to figures gathered at Democratic headquarters, and they are almost absolutely correct, is only 143 votes. The total registration of the negro vote in 1908 was 10,230 and this year it is 11,221. This knocks them out of several thousand votes which they counted on to start out with.

Democrats Show Gains.
The Democrats in the two days this year registered 24,727 votes, the Republicans 18,738 votes and the Independents 10,997, making a total of 54,462. In 1908, the Democrats registered 23,908 votes, the Republicans 18,507 votes, and the Independents about a thousand less than this year. The Democrats showed a gain of nearly 1,000 votes, while the Republicans showed a gain of but 238. As the negroes gained over 900 in their registration the figures show that the Republican gain among the white Republicans was about 600.

These facts alone have had a very discouraging effect upon the Republicans and the leaders cannot reconcile the actual returns with the former claims to the satisfaction of their disgruntled white Republican and black hosts. These facts, coupled with the severe arraignment of the Republican administration on the part of W. O. Head and other Democratic candidates, and the exposure of misdeeds in the city hall, has had the effect of driving the Republican ranks, which the Republican orators on the stump and the leaders in the bushes have been unable to cope with, and the Democrats are on the tide with easy sailing and finer prospects ahead.

Big Crowds; Much Enthusiasm.
William O. Head and the Democratic speakers did not get out last week until Thursday night, but they met with warm and rousing receptions the remainder of the week. On Thursday night at three outdoor meetings W. O. Head spoke to 1,500 voters. At Baxter avenue and Stevens avenue he addressed an audience of 500 and at Shelby and St. Catherine streets he spoke to 800. At Seventeenth and Market streets he spoke to 500 and would have spoken to 700 more had he arrived at Eighteenth and Hill streets in time. At all these meetings there was a new inspiration among the voters and the growth of the magnificent showing made by the Democrats in the two days' registration.

Friday night Mr. Head spoke to about the same number as he did Thursday night. His first speech was made to 500 voters at Mollwood avenue and Spring streets. At Seventeenth and Duncan streets he addressed a crowd of over 1,000. There the enthusiasm was at its height and the applause was so frequent and loud that it was almost impossible for the speaker to make any headway with his address. At Falls City Hall Mr. Head spoke to about 300 voters. His address followed that of Col. Bennett H. Young who had made an able appeal for the Democratic ticket. Saturday night Mr. Head addressed a crowd of about 250 in Blomner's Hall at Sixteenth and Southgate streets.

To Be Active This Week.

The speakers' committee has arranged for many meetings to be held this week. W. O. Head will speak from two to three times each night. A notable meeting will be held at next Friday night to be held at Liederkranz Hall under the auspices of the Democratic Democratic advisory committee. Col. Bennett H. Young, William O. Head and other speakers will be present at this meeting. This is to be known as a citizens' meeting and everybody is invited to attend and facts and figures will be submitted for the voters' consideration.

William O. Head is more than jubilant over the situation as it now presents itself and so expressed himself last night. Said he:

"The week just past was certainly full of encouragement for all Democrats. It seems to me that all things came our way and that the renewed interest all along the registration week is not always the best campaigning week by any means. The activity of the two days connected with registering the vote generally puts a temporary check on all other political affairs, but it was not so this past week with the Democrats. It seemed to me that the speaking Thursday night, just after the registration were more largely attended than at any other time during the campaign. It was a surprise to me. The enthusiasm was always at a high pitch. The rank and file of the party seemed to realize quickly that the registration was in our favor and pointed to victory."

Never Looked Better.

"I never saw a campaign look better for any party than it does for the Democrats now. The negro vote will not save the Republicans this time and neither will the independent vote. I know that I will get enough of the independent vote to give me a good majority and if I get it the entire ticket will do the same. What has given me a great deal of encouragement in the campaign this year is the fact that many young men have told me personally that this would be their first vote and that they were going to give it to me. Several hundred have told me that. Four young men met me Saturday night on the street car and told me their intention to cast their first vote for me."

Working Men For Head.

During the week Mr. Head visited many of the manufacturing industries throughout the city and the workmen in many of them were for him almost to a man. The visits last week were paid to many of the small factories. This week during the day Mr. Head will visit a number of the large plants and see the men. The heads of the factories all over the city have been kind to him and he has met with the highest esteem.

The leaders of the party who have been busy in conference all week are very much pleased with the situation since the registration, and so express themselves on all sides. The organization bureau at the headquarters, Third and Jefferson streets, continues to do fine work with its big corps of workers. J. H. Rose and Jack Shes are about the busiest two men to be found in Louisville these days. By Thursday noon, under the direction of Mr. Rose, the returns from the two days' registration were all in, including every precinct. For accuracy they can be equaled outside of those obtained through the slow process utilized in obtaining the official figures. Mr. Rose now has his force busy recopying the registration books to be used at the polls on election day. If any man attempts to vote illegally at the election he will be pretty apt to spend a term in the penitentiary, for he will be vigorously prosecuted. The check, though put on the attempt at illegal registration by numerous Republican repeaters and imported negroes has had a most telling effect and the work of the Democrats has been commended from every quarter of the city.

All the candidates were resting on their oars yesterday and last night from the arduous duties of last week. William O. Head remained in doors all day. He said that he was making preparations for a strenuous week, as he wanted to put all his might and strength into the campaign from now until the election.

"Billy" Possum.

Then there are lots of the "Billy Possums" on the Taft ranch. Because the President is partly responsible for bringing that animal in the limelight, the men on the Taft ranch naturally want him to enter the cage and land for him at least one of them. The possums down there are reported to be fat, and fit for the picnic. So the President stands a good chance of getting more "possum and fatter" than there are in Texas a number of dorkies who know just how a possum should be prepared.

Special Furniture.

For the coming of the President, however, some special furniture has been manufactured. Included in this is an immense dining table in order that the President might give some old-fashioned dinners and suppers to his friends. The chairs are reported to be "easy" chairs scattered about through the great mansion and its big verandas.

SULTAN OF TURKEY.

Will Go To Italy By Rail Rather Than Call At Constantinople.

Rome, Oct. 10.—It is expected that Emperor Nicholas, of Russia, will visit King Victor Emmanuel within a week.

Emperor Nicholas abandoned the idea of a voyage to Italy by sea, because Turkey granted permission for his ship to pass through the Dardanelles only on the condition that he would visit the Sultan, while the Emperor took the throne at a later date than himself, should be the first to give a visit.

CUP MAY COME TO LOUISVILLE

Final In Tri-City Golf Contest With Cincinnati.

Local Team Has Seven Points On the Others.

New Rules To Govern Audubon Club Course.

NEAT JOKE ON BIG FAT.

As the contest for the tri-city cup draws to a close interest among local golfers becomes more and more acute. The following formed the team of the Louisville Golf Club that played at Indianapolis last week: C. L. Nelson, Rodman Grubbs, Isaac Hilliard, Isaac Starks, D. M. Goodwyn, A. E. Kelk and S. H. Moon.

Although the Louisville team was defeated by the score of 12 to 8, their showing was good enough to eliminate Indianapolis from the race, that completing the latter's series of games. Only one game remains to be played, and that by Louisville on the Cincinnati links. Louisville now has a lead over Cincinnati of 7 points and that will encourage the local players somewhat when they go there for the final game. It is recognized that Cincinnati has a distinct advantage on their home links, and the Louisville bunch will have to put up some good golf to keep the cup from going into permanent quarters up the river.

But all points possible in one game total only 24, and the local players have a lead of 7. If, therefore, anyone is inclined to back the Cincinnati contingent, discretion should suggest that, instead of a plunge, peanuts be used as the members of the Louisville team remained over night. They had the privilege of participating in an impromptu ball game at the Louisville Club, but (they made one mistake) it is rumored they tried to dance without removing their shoes and the floor was, oh, so slick.

William Heyburn is back from that European trip. He played golf on many of the famous courses abroad, and while he is not inclined to make comparisons, the smile he wore as he mused his ball jump the bunker, dodge the railroad or miss the creek on his return to the Louisville links spoke volumes.

If Mr. Heyburn doesn't look up a little with that car load of fine clubs he brought back home at least some of his best friends threatens to send the golf editor a paragraph about some of those who did not turn out to his advantage.

The play at the Louisville course for the Governor's cup has narrowed down to three contestants, A. E. Kelk's victory over M. H. Smith places him in the final. Mr. Kelk's opponent in the game for actual possession of the cup will be played by C. L. Nelson and W. A. Northcutt.

It was a merry crowd of golf players, summer widowers, who were gathered together at the Country Club during the past summer. Practical jokes were pulled off at every opportunity and the absent wives and sweethearts would have trembled for the loved ones left at home had they witnessed some of the hair-raising pranks. But it recurred to the members of the Louisville club that it would be well to abolish the perpetration of the best joke of the summer and strange to say she selected her own loving "hubby" as the target. He had been affectionately dubbed by his fanlars as "Big Fat," as it is customary among the crowd who have been living together at the Country Club for years to give nicknames to each other. Some of the euphonious titles are "Judge," "German Charlie," "The Bug," "Rabbit," "Big Face," "Little Face" and "Big Mac."

During the summer months "Big Fat" had written several letters to his absent spouse and son describing the awful heat and the lonesomeness of his long and anxious wait for their return. But he received one day a letter announcing their homecoming on the following Monday morning. He immediately got off a special delivery answer describing the torrid weather and urging them to prolong their stay for another week. But on the appointed day the son returned and announced that as the house would not be ready he would visit some friends until next week, when mother would arrive.

Every day there came a loving letter with the proper postmark, plying him for his enforced lonesomeness and promising to be on hand next week. Each passing day was counted by "Big Fat" as a day of torment. He was so downcast that the end of his summer holiday was so near at hand that his observing friends were fearful not had before, the fairway is now in splendid condition, while play on the putting greens produces pleasure rather than profanity.

An attractive new book is now being prepared by Charlie Dobbs, of the Audubon Club. It contains eighty pages with the full history of the club, names of the members and a selected list of views. The book will be out in a short time.

With the completion of the eighteen hole course, the Louisville Golf Club will have the following new ground rules have just been announced:

The bounds of the course shall be considered beyond the inner side of the road encircling the golf grounds. A ball played beyond such boundary must be considered out of bounds and the player with loss of distance only, except that when same is driven out of bounds from a tee, the same procedure must be followed except the ball may be re-teed without further penalty.

A ball lost out of bounds or in a penalty hazard cannot be penalized as lost. A ball played into a ditch may be lifted and dropped on the side of the ditch furthest from the hole with a penalty of a stroke in either match or medal play. There are no other decisions given on the course, and a ball must be played from where it lies in all other cases. This ruling does not apply to ditches on washouts that are not intended to be hazards.

With the above exceptions, the rulings of the United States and Western Golf Association shall govern.

INDIANS INCREASING IN UNITED STATES.

More Than 300,000 Are Now the Wards of the Government.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The popular idea that the American Indians are decreasing in number is dissipated by official figures showing that to-day there are more than 300,000 red men in the United States.

The increase in population of about 40,000 during the last two decades is attributed to the Government's constant effort to uplift the Indian to the level of contemporary civilization. Three and one-third million dollars is being expended by the United States annually for the education of more than 20,000 Indian boys and girls.

Public men and work with Indians are impressed with the view that the race is progressing and that the Government will lift its guardianship over them. Before his retirement from office, former Indian Commissioner Lewis asserted that the Indians at no far distant date would reach such a standard of civilization that it would be deemed wise to abolish the Indian office.

HAND-SHAKING WITH GEN. DIAZ

Busy Times Ahead For Taft In Texas.

Programme Arranged For Elaborate Ceremony.

Wild-Cat Hunt On Brother Charley's Ranch.

FAT 'POSSUMS IN TREES.

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 10.—President Taft's journey through Texas, beginning October 16 and ending October 24, opens with the most formal of all the affairs that have characterized his swing around the United States. At the border of the largest State in the Union, he will greet the President of another republic. He will just shake hands with President Diaz, of Mexico on the Texas side of the Rio Grande.

After an all-day stay at El Paso, the President starts on another long jump, San Antonio being his next stop, and there he is to accept on behalf of the United States Army a magnificent chapel and library building, the gift of San Antonians, as an appreciation of the American soldier.

Following a day's visit in San Antonio, the President will leave for his brother's ranch at Corpus Christi for four days of rest. Then he will make, in quick succession, stops at Houston and Dallas on his way to St. Louis. Texas will uphold its end in the way of breakfasts, luncheons and banquets, and the President should find much diversion, because of the varied and interesting features of the Texas programme.

Will Hunt Wildcats.

On his brother's ranch the President and members of his party will have the opportunity to relax after their strenuous trip. Formalities will be eliminated as far as possible. On the ranch he is expected to join in a hunt for wildcats.

He will visit for the first time the town of Taft, named in his honor, which now has a population of 600.

The climax feature of the 13,000-mile tour of President Taft, from St. Louis to El Paso, where he will meet the executive of the Mexican republic, Gen. Porfirio Diaz. For the first time during his long reign as the President of Mexico, Diaz is to leave the confines of his domain, cross the Rio Grande River at El Paso, and there set foot on foreign soil. It required a special concession from the Mexican Congress in order that the illustrious Mexican might grasp the hand of the man who has been honored with the highest office of the United States.

Meeting of the Presidents.

Eleven o'clock is the hour set for the meeting of the two Presidents on American territory. Preceding this hour there will be some formal ceremonies, including the singing of both the American and Mexican anthems by hundreds of children stationed on this side of the boundary of the two countries. There will be salutes for these high dignitaries, and the armies of both republics will participate.

Ninth Infantry To Be Present.

From San Antonio to more than 600 miles east of El Paso, where is located one of the large military garrisons of this country, will come to the border, ten trains, the Ninth Infantry, which has a magnificent war record; the Third Regiment of Cavalry, one-half of the Third Field Artillery Regiment, the Signal Corps and the Hospital Corps. Their number will be augmented at El Paso by the Nineteenth Infantry from Fort Bliss.

These troops under command of Brig.-Gen. Albert L. Myer, will stand at attention on the bank of the river facing Mexico, while Gen. Diaz is crossing to the United States where he will receive the presidential salute, Mexican troops, in similar formation and on their home territory, will accord the honor to President Taft while he is visiting Mexico. Immediately after Gen. Diaz returns to his country, the troops brought from San Antonio will board trains for their station and prepare for the great review for the President on the occasion of his visit to that city.

Mayor Joseph U. Sweeney, of El

Paso, will receive both Presidents in front of the Chamber of Commerce building at 11 o'clock. The formal introduction of the presidential parties will go to breakfast.

Taft's Visit To Mexico.

Just before noon the Presidents and their entourages start for Mexico, crossing the international bridge at high noon. The officials of Juarez, the Mexican city opposite El Paso, have arranged an elaborate entertainment.

At 1:15 o'clock, President Taft will go back to his own country. The return will be marked with a great olive and military parade. The President will then address the people of El Paso, and at 2 o'clock Mr. Taft is again due at the Chamber of Commerce to meet the Ohio Society and Yale Alumni.

After a half-hour reception the President will leave for his hotel, and at 5:30 o'clock President Taft's special will cross the Texas with the President's train. Each will be given for the two executives at the Juarez customhouse. Two hours later Mr. Taft will be on his way across the Texas with the President's train. He is characterized only by cheers and the good wishes of his countrymen as the War Department regulations do not permit of gun salutes after sunset. However, in Mexico he may be given a noisy farewell as he quits Mexican soil.

"Undesirable Citizens" Moved.

The President's brief visits to Mexico will be fraught with a number of pleasing little incidents which the Mexican officials have not yet made public. The Mexican Government began a quiet house-cleaning in the northern part of the republic a month ago. All the undesirable citizens were asked to go South and remain there until the word was passed around that they might again return to the border.

Not alone in Mexico, but Texas as well, have the Mexican secret police been operating and lining up those individuals who have at one time or another displayed a revolutionary tendency. Secret service officials of the United States have not been inactive and they have co-operated with the sleuths of Mexico.

Notable Escort.

On his long journey from El Paso to San Antonio there will be ample escort for Mr. Taft. Notable in this escort will be one hundred members of the great estate known as "La Quinta," who have chartered a special train for the trip to and from the border. Mr. Taft is an honorary president of this organization, and so Gen. Diaz. The purpose of the club is to promote business between the two republics. The club members give up holding a special meeting at Juarez, in order that Gen. Diaz may preside. In the United States, the President will be the American troops returning to San Antonio.

Brother Charley's Guest.

For months preparations have been under way for the reception at the Taft ranch, near Corpus Christi. In the four days that he remains on the great estate known as "La Quinta" he will have golfing, hunting, fishing and a chance to admire the fine cattle ranch owned by the Darlington family, which will be paraded before him by the proud managers.

BEYOND REASON BANKING NEWS OF THE WEEK SUPPLIED BY R. G. DUN & CO.

Stock Exchange Values Over the Limit.

STREET BEGINS TO HEED CAUTIONARY SIGNALS.

PROSPERITY OF FARMERS DUE TO SCARCITY OF PRODUCTS.

WAITING GAME FOR INVESTORS

(Correspondence of the Courier-Journal.)
New York, Oct. 9.—Reactionary influences are multiplying daily. At last the money market is being heeded, and it is recognized that Stock Exchange prices have been forced to a level beyond reason. Every known argument in favor of higher prices has been worked to the limit; every known element of prosperity has been more than fully discovered. Even better dividend returns have been found than those which have been proven by the fact that when these occur they are usually utilized as a basis for fresh realigning.

Months past the street has been stimulated by optimistic views and activities of all kinds; some of them genuine, some of them false. Much of the so-called prosperity talk has been exaggerated and exaggerated only. The stock market is extraordinary activity and prosperity combined. The industry is certainly enjoying a boom, but it is due to the fact that the nation's increase in population, activity and purchasing power combined with the fact that the steel industry is producing more than it can consume. The steel industry is producing more than it can consume. The steel industry is producing more than it can consume. The steel industry is producing more than it can consume.

Property Unevenly Distributed.

Outside of the steel industry, however, it is difficult to find any cause for immoderate enthusiasm. Business is not so good as it was a year ago. The volume of 1909. CASH WHEAT RUNAWAY

Strength Developed Drove Many to Bull Side.

WORLD'S AVAILABLE SUPPLY NO. 2 FOUNDRY GOES UP TO $15.50 PER TON.

THE IMMEDIATE CONDITIONS FAVOR HIGHER PRICES.

DECLINE NOTED IN CASH CORN. BIG DEMAND FOR COKE.

(Correspondence of the Courier-Journal.)
Chicago, Oct. 10.—Popular sentiment in wheat last week was running strongly to the bull side. The continued strength of cash wheat was the chief factor which changed a large number of opinions. Cash premiums for future wheat were too big a handicap for most of the bears, and quite a number went over to the bull side. With No. 2 foundry in the premium, one time during the week of 16 cents over December, No. 2 hard at 5 cents over No. 2 soft, and No. 2 red bringing $12.00 on track and No. 2 red bringing $12.00 on track, the short seller realized that the disadvantage was a little too pronounced for the present. Technically, however, the market was not so strong as it appeared. The market was not so strong as it appeared. The market was not so strong as it appeared. Murray Bruner in Line for Promotion.

Braved Dangers in Philippine Islands to Obtain Records of Dr. Jones. Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 10.—(Special.)—Promoted to be in line for Murray Bruner, now an official in the Philippine navy, on account of his work in preserving scientific records in the Philippines. The following is taken from a letter from Dr. Jones to Murray Bruner, commanding officer of the First Company, Isabel constabulary. In his eagerness to secure the notes he had taken during his expedition and braved treacherous rapids. At one point he was rescued by friendly hunters and continued the journey until he reached the mouth of the river. It was a long and arduous journey, but he was determined to complete it.

Brewing Company Files Suit Against Railroad.

Cincinnati Firm Charges Blasting For New Roadbed Has Caused It Heavy Damage. Cincinnati, Oct. 10.—(Special.)—Suit for $20,000 has been filed by the Heran-croft Brewing Company, of Cincinnati, against the Cincinnati, Cincinnati and Louisville railroad, and an effort will be made by the same concern to stop the construction of the road near the brewery in the manner now being used by Jones Bros. contractors, the employees of the railway. The plaintiff asserts in its petition that its plant has been seriously injured by the use of dynamite in blasting the roadbed upon which the road intends building new tracks. It wishes to have an injunction issued to prevent the further use of this explosive.

CASH WHEAT RUNAWAY

Strength Developed Drove Many to Bull Side.

WORLD'S AVAILABLE SUPPLY NO. 2 FOUNDRY GOES UP TO $15.50 PER TON.

THE IMMEDIATE CONDITIONS FAVOR HIGHER PRICES.

DECLINE NOTED IN CASH CORN. BIG DEMAND FOR COKE.

(Correspondence of the Courier-Journal.)
Chicago, Oct. 10.—Popular sentiment in wheat last week was running strongly to the bull side. The continued strength of cash wheat was the chief factor which changed a large number of opinions. Cash premiums for future wheat were too big a handicap for most of the bears, and quite a number went over to the bull side. With No. 2 foundry in the premium, one time during the week of 16 cents over December, No. 2 hard at 5 cents over No. 2 soft, and No. 2 red bringing $12.00 on track and No. 2 red bringing $12.00 on track, the short seller realized that the disadvantage was a little too pronounced for the present. Financial and Commercial MONETARY.

Street Railway Bonds.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—The statement of the New York clearing-house banks for the week made a better exhibit than expected. The average surplus reserves were $4,447,750, a decrease of only $10,000. There were no withdrawals in loans and deposits, but in loans were $30,675,000 and in deposits $49,000,000. The latter change lessened reserve requirements $12,325,075, while the loss in cash was $12,395,000. It is probable, however, that the banks were enabled to make this showing through the shifting of loans to non-reporting institutions. The money market ruled strong, with money touched 6 per cent. early in the week, and advanced to 6 1/2 per cent. for the entire week. Time funds for all dates ranged between 4 1/2 and 4 3/4 per cent. The general money situation showed a distinct hardening tendency. A feature of the week was the unexpected advance of the discount rate of the Bank of England from 3 1/2 to 4 per cent. The world's demand for gold seems to have been concentrated on that institution, and another increase is believed in some quarters to be imminent in order to protect the reserves. The bank reported reserves of 48 1/2 per cent. against 50 1/2 last week. It was not improbable that the bank would have been in a position to make this showing for a long time, but there does not seem to be any fear of a stringency in the near future. If stock speculation continues to show signs of activity, the money market may remain at a reasonable level through the fall and winter.

SONGS BY LOUISVILLE
AUTHORS TO BE SUNG.

Autograph Copies of Works by Local Writers Will Also Be Auctioned.

Three songs on the programme for the authors' reading at the Seelbach road auditorium on October 16, for the benefit of the model tenement house campaign, are the productions of local men. They are "Baby Mary," "When Ships Put Out to Sea" and "She Is So Much." The words are by Madison Cawlen and the music by J. P. Grant. They will be sung by Mr. Grant & company.

Another announcement concerning the programme is that Mrs. Carrie Rothchild-Sapinsky, whose superb contralto voice has delighted many Louisville audiences, will make her last appearance at the authors' reading before leaving for New York with Mr. Sapinsky to reside. They will leave this city November 1.

Autograph copies of books by American authors will be sold at auction on this occasion, it being the first sale of the character ever held here. Many writers have responded generously to requests for autographs and a number of writing sample verses or lines expressing hearty sympathy with local people working for the success of the movement to reform tenement house conditions.

One volume which will doubtless command a good price is "The Land of Long Ago," the newest work of Ellen Calver Hall, the Kentucky novelist, whose "Aunt Jane of Kentucky" has had such phenomenal sales.

The gifted Henry Van Dyke's numerous admirers will have an opportunity to bid on "The Ruling Passion," "Half a Chance," the recent novel by Frederic S. Isham, has just been received.

THREE COUPLES GO TO JEFFERSONVILLE TO WED.

Magistrate Kelgwin Draws Two and Magistrate Hay One of Them.

Nicholas Jacoby, a mechanic, and Miss Lizzie Gay, both of Louisville, were married in Jeffersonville Saturday night by Magistrate James S. Kelgwin. The bridegroom is a native of Germany and is 23 years old. The bride was born in Birmingham, Ala., and is not yet 19. She is a daughter of William Gay of Birmingham, whose occupation was given as that of a soldier.

Edwin B. Stern, a piano player, and Miss Clara M. Bowers, both of whom were born in Louisville and still live there, were also married Saturday night in Jeffersonville by Magistrate Kelgwin. The bridegroom is 22 years old and a son of Jacob Stern, who is in the clothing business. The bride is 20 and a daughter of Charles Bowers, a harnessmaker. An affidavit as to the ages of the pair was made by Oliver W. Spier.

Fredrick M. Stewart and Mrs. Lillian Williams, both of Louisville, were married by Magistrate C. S. Hay in Jeffersonville Saturday night. The bridegroom is a native of Meade county, Ky., and is 27 years old. He is employed by the Louisville Water Company and was married once before. His first wife died September 11, 1907. William Stewart, farmer, is his father.

The bride was born in Trimble county, Ky., 39 years ago last June. She was married once before and was divorced December 20, 1905, taking her maiden name, that of her former husband not being shown in the application for a marriage license.

Removes Poisons of Catarrh and Rheumatism From the Blood.

For catarrh of the head use a teaspoonful of salt and a quarter teaspoonful of borax dissolved in a pint of warm water. Scour the nostrils through the nostrils twice daily and immediate relief is experienced. To cure a constitutional blood remedy must be used. Catarrh and rheumatism are both due to accumulated poisons in the system. These poisons must be eliminated.

The following simple home mixture effectively acts on the kidneys, the bowels and the skin, causing them to resume their functions quickly and properly:

Get one-half ounce fluid extract Buchu, one ounce compound fluid Balmwort, and two ounces syrup Sarsaparilla compound. Mix and take a teaspoonful after each meal and one after retiring. Many cases of catarrh, rheumatism and kidney trouble have already benefited by this treatment.

LITTLE QUIET

In Both Political Parties In Jeffersonville.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE NAILS
REPUBLICAN FABRICATIONS.

CORONER BELIEVES ISAAC HALE
IS A SUICIDE

BY DRINKING CARBOLIC ACID.

So little politics is heard in Jeffersonville that one would not know an election campaign was being held there. A stranger in the place and some one did not tell him each side was making no demonstration is being made. The Democrats believe this lack of spirit on the part of the Republicans means a loss of interest by the old leaders of that party, who have not shown a disposition to take a hand in the fight but have indicated they do not care what the result will be. The Democratic organization is being completed, many ward meetings have already been held and the City Central Committee has established headquarters, where reports are made of the progress of the campaign.

Practically the only fight so far put up by the Republicans has been to circulate statements regarding James E. Burke, the Democratic nominee for Mayor, which are classed as being untrue by him. One of these is that certain men have already been promised appointive offices. Mr. Burke said yesterday that he had not promised one man anything and he would go into office, if elected, and which he expected to be, with no promise out to anybody. He said that to begin with, practically the only appointment he had was that of Police Commissioner, as was that of City Attorney, Chief of Fire Department and Street Commissioner. Mr. Burke said a statement going the rounds that he would retain Capt. Clegg as Chief of Police was untrue, although personally the two are friends. In event he is elected, Mr. Burke said, the Chief of Police will be a Democrat, but the name will be decided after the votes are counted and it is found that the Democrats have won. He said he would not tolerate many things that would not permit him to give Jeffersonville a clean, business administration. He said he was opposed to a wide-open city and would not tolerate many things that would not permit him to give Jeffersonville a clean, business administration. He said he was opposed to a wide-open city and would not tolerate many things that would not permit him to give Jeffersonville a clean, business administration.

Mr. Burke said he did not believe in the blue laws of the past any more than he does of the wide-open methods now practiced in some places. He said he would, if elected Mayor, see that the laws were consistently obeyed. He said the many questions that will come up will have to be faced as they come to and settled in the way it is thought best for all concerned, but at all times for the best interest of the city. Mr. Burke has been successful in his own business affairs and his friends cannot see why the same success should not apply to his being mayor of Jeffersonville.

Thinks Hale Took His Life.

Isaac Hale who was in a prosperous condition and owned a good farm on which he lived three miles west of Jeffersonville, was found dead in bed by his son, Carl Hale, yesterday morning early. Coroner Frank McCallie, who was summoned from Jeffersonville, gave it as his opinion Hale had taken his own life by swallowing a quantity of carbolic acid, but what became of the bottle the poison was in is not known. Mr. Hale had been in poor health for a long time and was not responsible for his actions a good part of the time.

Several years ago he suffered a sunstroke, which at the time it was feared would prove fatal. He recovered, however, but at times he lost control of his mental powers and he was extremely nervous and from this cause could not sleep at times. It is said by the family that he would be up at a great deal during the night trying to compose himself so he could retire and go to sleep. On this account he occupied a bed to himself. On Saturday Mr. Hale went to New Albany to get some medicine and told members of his family it would be his last trip.

He had frequently said he was tired of living, but was not any more depressed Saturday than he had been previously. After his return from New Albany, and as he passed through his father's room supposed he heard the night nurse say that he had taken the bottle of carbolic acid and had secured somewhere, then threw the bottle away.

Mr. Hale was born not far from where he died on June 20, 1848. He was a man well liked and highly respected. He is survived by his wife and two sons, J. M. Hale, who lived near his parents, and Carl Hale, who stayed in the home. There are many other relatives.

Will Interfere With Marriages.

Dr. David H. Reeder, of Laporte, Ind., publicist, has begun a crusade against the present method of issuing marriage licenses, and if his fight is successful, the Kentucky couples who go to Jeffersonville with a few dollars in their pockets to get married will not find it so easy to secure the license. It is the theory of Dr. Reeder that license to marry is granted to numerous persons and persons who are not fit to be married. It is his contention they are unfit from mental, moral and physical standpoint.

The careless methods of granting marriage licenses in Indiana, Dr. Reeder asserts, are black spots on a supposedly civilized country. He says it should be his purpose to force legislation compelling all applicants for marriage licenses to pass examinations on the part of competent licensing boards. Dr. Reeder says he is in earnest in what he says and it will be found at the end of the year that he has recruited quite an army of followers to assist him in having the present laws changed.

NOTES OF THE NEWS FROM JEFFERSONVILLE.

A rummage sale for the benefit of the Old Ladies' Home Society will be inaugurated tomorrow at the residence of Mrs. J. M. Brock, and will be continued for an indefinite period.

Thomas J. Brock, a well-known attorney of the city, is confined to his home on Mechanic street from an attack of tonsillitis. His son, Curtis Brock, is ill of diphtheria.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Jacobs have returned from their wedding trip and have come to housekeeping on East Chestnut street, near Graham, a pretty little home having been prepared before their marriage.

The rain of yesterday was general throughout the county and will be considered a blessing by the farmers in starting the fall pasture. It will also be a benefit to the stock as it is desired to sow in wheat.

The Christian Endeavor Society of St. Lucas German Evangelical church will give an entertainment on Friday evening, which will be known as a "Trip Around the World," and a large number of tickets have already been sold.

Keweenaw No. 268, Improved Order of Red Men, will have a potpourri at the wigwam of the organization this evening and a class of twenty-five pupils will be adopted. Following the work there will be a social session.

Preparations are being made by the Farmers' Institute, No. 1, of Utica township, will meet with Dr. D. H. Hargrave, of Louisville, on Saturday, October 16, at the residence of Mr. Hargrave, in Charlestown township. The subject of the meeting will be "The Farmer As a Citizen." The subject will be discussed by Harry J. Ford, of Louisville, and John F. Crum, of Louisville.

Phasants To Replace Quail.
According to the report of Z. T. Sweeney, State Fish and Game Commissioner, the establishment of game preserves in Indiana have proved most satisfactory and the influence of the vigilance exercised by the deputies is already being felt.

Indiana has received a distribution of 10,000 Mongolian pheasants and Hungarian partridges and 7,000 more will be sent out within the next few months. Jonathan Hancock, whose place is a few miles north of New Albany, has a fine covey of young pheasants ten days old, which he hopes to rear, although the season is late.

Protest Nomination
MADE BY REPUBLICANS.
Newport Candidate For Police Judge
Makes Statement Concerning
Recent Mass Convention.

Newport, Ky., Oct. 10.—(Special).—Based on an affidavit, in which he declares there were irregularities in the counting of the votes at the Republican mass convention here Saturday, Henry W. Reusch, candidate for nomination as Police Judge, will protest to the executive committee of the nomination of Jacob Brown.

Reusch says in his affidavit that both Charles Tucker and Edward Buckley, who were named as judges of the election, did not vote for him. Reusch says that he will produce the affidavits of Tucker and Buckley to show that even then the nomination of Brown was not legal, as he had less than enough for the choice over Reusch.

Going To Christian Convention.
Delegates attending the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the organization of the Christian church will leave to-day for Pittsburg, 50,000 from all parts of the country being expected. The Rev. Frank T. Porter, pastor of the Park Christian church at New Albany, and Mrs. Porter, will leave for Pittsburg to-day.

Clearly Ineligible

Western Kentucky Attorney Authority On Constitutional Law.

"If there ever was a man ineligible to succeed himself in office according to the Constitution of Kentucky, it is Mayor Grinstead, in my opinion," declared Col. John K. Hendrick, of Paducah, at the Old Inn last night. "The section is plain where it says that a Mayor elected for one year is ineligible for a succeeding term. Now it is true Mayor Grinstead was not elected for four years, yet the spirit of the law is that a man holding an elective term is not eligible for a succeeding elective term. If the Constitution or the charter of the city of Louisville is so fixed that any time over ninety days did not pass between the expiration of his term and his re-election, he is ineligible for a succeeding term. If the law is as it is now, and he is not a candidate for a succeeding term, he is ineligible for a succeeding term."

"The framers of the Constitution in this respect have been very wise. A man should use his office as a means of building a machine for his re-election to the office, which is the elective term. If he does not do this, he is ineligible for a succeeding term. If he does not do this, he is ineligible for a succeeding term."
